ENDS CAMPAIGN WITH SPEECH HERE

Senator James E. Watson Is Greeted
By Large Crowd at Coliseum
This Afternoon

INTRODUCED BY W. M. SPARKS

Senator Says He Has Had Many Ups
and Downs But Ups Were Due to Friends Here

Senator James E. Watson came back home today to close his speaking campaign, as has been his custom for years.

Though the day was ideal for farm work and many farmers were busy in the fields, there were few vacant
seats in the coliseum when the senator arose to speak at 2:30 o'clock
this afternoon.

The senator will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Green while in Rushville and will remain over Tuesday to vote. He is accompanied by Mrs. Watson.

Headed by the Rushville band, a parade formed in the public square
and marched to the coliseum at two o'clock. Remembering their experience of two years ago, however, a majority of the people who wanted to hear Senator Watson did not wait for the parade but went early to the coliseum to make sure of a seat.

This afternoon's meeting not only marked the end of Senator Watson's campaign speaking tour, but it also ended the republican campaign in Rush county. Senator Watson will remain here tonight and not speak at Newcastle as he had been originally intended, because he is exhausted from making two speeches a day for several weeks.

"We are met here again for the biennial home coming of our beloved fellow townsman," said Judge Will
M. Sparks, in introducing the Indiana senator. "While I believe it is proper to call him senator out of reverence
and respect for the office to us he is just plain Jim. No man in the history of Rush county and no woman except one has been able to draw the crowd that Senator Watson attracts here every two years. That exception is Helen Kellar. It means a good deal to me because it shows the high esteem in which he is held at home."

"It has hurt me to hear some of the mean things that have been said about him over the state. But nothing like that ever came from home,
because here at home they know you.
There is no person of any standing in Rush county who has had the effect of Senator Watson."

GLENWOOD MARSHAL FILES AFFIDAVITS

Speed Demons Will Be Compelled
To Answer Charges. If They Violate Motor Laws

ONE PAYS $1 AND COSTS

Autoists are warned to watch their dust as they pass through Glenwood,
east of Rushville, as several affidavits have been filed in Justice Stech's court against alleged speeders who have recently passed through the village just as if the place was not on the map.

Several of these alleged violators
will appear in this court Wednesday
and a partial list is given as follows:

Edwin D. James of Indianapolis;
Paul P. Schafflin of Indianapolis;
Fred Terry, Morton hotel Indianapolis; and William Hadley also of Indianapolis.

Thomas Atherton of near Cumberland has appeared and pleaded guilty paying his fine of $1 and costs, which amounted to $15. All of the charges date back for a few days, and were preferred by Daniel Laughlin, who marshals.

Greenup Thompson, justice of the peace of Glenwood, it is said has refused to docket the cases as he maintains that the marshal is not legally qualified to serve, because of an alleged mix-up of the town board.
Local attorneys maintain that this would not make any difference, because a citizen can file charges, just
the same as an officer.

SAFETY SAM

"Safety" is a pretty word,
It's one I simply dote on;
An issue, too, so I've heard,
Which we can daily vote on!

TO INVESTIGATE FRAUD EVIDENCE

Federal Grand Jury Will Meet Wednesday to Probe Reports of Disregard of Election Laws

HOMER ELLIOTT'S STATEMENT

Among Complaints are Those That Deal With Fake Registration and Misuse of Absent Voters Ballots

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 6—The federal grand jury, meeting here
Wednesday will investigate evidence
of fraud in tomorrow's election,
United States District Attorney Homer Elliott declared today, adding that he had received complaints
"from several sections of Indiana"

regarding false registrations and abuse of the absent voters' ballot.
Mr. Elliott's statement, in full, follows:—

"Within the past twenty four hours, reports have come to me
from several sections of the state and from leaders of both political parties that, if true, indicate a reckless disregard of the election
laws."

"It may be that there are some who believe that it is not a Federal offense to violate the State election
law, but it must be borne in mind
that we elect a United States Senator and the members of our National House of Representatives at this coming election and that therefore any violation becomes a Federal offense."

"Among the complaints already received are those that deal with fake registration and the misuse of absent voters' ballots."

TO MAKE PILGRIMAGE TO THE CITY OF NAHOR

Company of Novitiates From Knightstown Will Come for Initiation Here Thursday Night

DECORATIONS TO BE GIVEN

A company of novitiates from Knightstown will make the pilgrimage to the city of Nahor next Thursday evening at a meeting held by the Pilgrims of Nahor at the Odd Fellows hall in this city. Great preparations are being made for the initiation and visitors are expected from all over the state, as this is the only lodge of the order and has members from all sections.

Refreshments furnished by the lodge will be served after the work.
A collection for the Colfax Memorial building at the Greensburg Home
will be taken, the regular roll-call of the Nimrods—a class of members who have distinguished themselves
at former initiations—will be held
and several will receive the decoration of the Knights of L'Emon which is bestowed for generosity and is given to those who contribute most liberally.

Unusual interest attaches to this meeting for the reason that an election will be held to fill a vacancy in the office of Great B. C. and no doubt great rivalry will be shown by the different sections to land this office.

Special music will be furnished by the Hejazers of Nahor a band of oriental musicians who assist in the degree work.

WATSON IS GLAD TO GET BACK HOME

Indiana Senator Guest of Honor and Speaks at Kiwanis Club Meeting
at Noon Today.

CHANGED ATTITUDE SEEN

Recalls Difference Between Present
and the Time When Partisanship Ran High

Senator James E. Watson was the guest of honor at the regular meeting of the Kiwanis club today noon
and spoke for a few minutes, expressing his joy at being back
among old friends again.

A number of other guests were present, including Congressman Richard N. Elliott of Connersville. Robert E. Mansfield presided and introduced the Indiana senator, in a very happy way calling attention to the fact that he really needed no
introduction in Rushville.

Senator Watson said he had many introductions in his public career, on various kinds, but none quite like the one received when he made his last chautauqua address, which will probably be his last, he said.

The introducer announced that the chautauqua had been operated at a loss the previous season and that the management had arranged for a cheaper program, the first number of which was Senator Watson.

"It is nice to be introduced," said
the senator, "away from home as an orator and a statesman, but after all I enjoy the plain and homely introduction, such as Bob back home
where we all know one another."

Senator Watson said he was glad to see the changed attitude where republicans and democrats mixed together in friendly relations, such as in the Kiwanis club, without regard to politics.

"Why I remember the time," he added, "when republican and democratic children would not play together. That was shortly after the civil war when partisan feeling ran high. I am glad that condition has passed."

Senator Watson referred to the artificial life in Washington and to the arduous work in which he had been engaged, spending sixteen hours
a day at his official duties for the last fourteen months.

"You may well imagine," the senator continued, "the relief which I feel when I can come back to Rushville, where the real genuine friendships are formed. In communities

FARLOW APPEALS TO HIGHER COURT

Milroy Man Who Was Found Guilty
Of Arson By Jury Takes Appeal
When Sentence Is Passed

APPEAL BOND FIXED AT $3000

John J. Farlow, farmer of near, Milroy was found guilty by a jury on the charge of arson in the circuit court October 26, was arraigned this afternoon shortly before two o'clock before Judge John Craig of Greensburg, special judge who heard the case, and judgement
was rendered on the jury's verdict in the form of a prison sentence of not less than two years, nor more than 21 years in the state prison, and he was fined $1 and costs.

The defendant previously applied
for a new trial, but Judge Craig
overruled the motion, and sentence was passed. Before passing sentence Judge Craig asked the defendant if he had anything to say, but no statement was made.

After the sentence was passed, the attorneys for the defense appealed the case to the Supreme court and his appeal bond in the sum of $3000 was provided by Dr. Charles Morris and A. L. Winship. The defendant was allowed his liberty when the bond was approved.

The defense cited 31 instances
where a new trial should be granted mostly being alleged citations where
the court erred in giving instructions
to the jury.

LOCATED THROUGH UNUSUAL INCIDENT

Harter Bebout Identified in Asylum
at Elgin, Ill., by Man Who Read Advertisement

RECALLS RELATIVE'S STORY

Two Patients, One of Them Rush-
ville Man, Each With Artificial Leg, Engage in a Fight

Harter Bebout, who was reported missing since August 22, when he disappeared from his rooming house
in Chicago, where he had been taken by his sister, Miss Ethel Bebout, to undergo mental treatment, was located in Elgin, Ill., and returned here.

He was located through the efforts of K. J. T. Ekblaw of Chicago, agricultural engineer for the Portland cement company, and the reward of $500 was paid to him by Silverton Bebout of this city, brother and guardian of the demented
young man.

The manner in which he was apprehended was brought about by a mere streak of luck. Mr. Ekblaw had a relative who was in charge of the state asylum, and he visited there recently. While there the relative told Ekblaw that a funny incident
had happened there a few nights before.

The asylum official said that there were two young men recently brought to the place, each having artificial legs, and that one night the two got into an argument as to which one had the best leg. The argument developed into a fight, in which the legs were used as weapons and it happened
the local young man got his leg broken in the tangle. It was repaired by another inmate, however.

Mr. Ekblaw upon his return to Chicago happened to read an advertisement in a Chicago paper, in which the description of the local man was given, together with the announcement that a reward of $500
was offered.

He made a trip back to the asylum and compared the descriptions, and called Silverton Bebout over the telephone. Mr. Bebout sent Frank Capp to Elgin to identify Harter, and he was brought back here and is in custody of his brother, who will probably file papers for insanity
proceedings.

It is stated that the demented
young man wandered from his rooming house in Chicago, and was

POLICE ARE NOTIFIED HARNESS IS STOLEN

Follow Clue in Search for Robber
Who Entered Will Trennepohl's
Barn Snday Night

HORSE TAKEN AT GREENFIELD

A barn was entered by thieves
Sunday night, or early this morning and the police today were making a search for a suspect. A double set of harness and bridles, valued at several dollars, were stolen from the barn used by Will Trennepohl, located at the rear of a residence in West Third street, near the Ball and Orme elevator.

The police received word Sunday
that a horse had been stolen from Greenfield, and a man answering his description was reported here last night. Patrolmen Lakin and Havens this morning followed a clue to Greensburg and Shelbyville in an effort to locate the alleged suspect,
but he could not be found.

A small robbery took place Saturday night at the C. I. & W. freight station, where a window was pried
open, and a case of extract was ransacked, and a few overalls stolen.
The tools that were used to get inside of the depot were reported to have been stolen from the Dill Foundry, just west of the depot, and no trace of the tools was found.

D. A. R. Emblems Removed From Court House Table

It was discovered today that two emblems of the Daughters of the American Revolution had been removed from the Revolutionary soldiers memorial table which was recently placed in the corridors of the court house by the local chapter of the D. A. R. It is not thought that they would be willfully stolen and members of the chapter are very anxious that they be returned if found.

SEPTEMBER TERM DRAWS TO CLOSE

Busy Court Term Will End Saturday With Vacation of Next Week
Between Two Series

STATE CASES ARE SET

Effort Will be Made to Clean up
State Before Jan. 1—Mary Ellen Hughes Case on Dec. 4

The September term of court,
which has been a busy one since it started on September 4, will come to a close Saturday, and a week will intervene between terms, placing the November term to open on November 20.

Not many cases have been set for trial this week, and the jury will not be used any more this term. The last case they tried was the juvenile case against Dr. Morris of Milroy, and they were then discharged.

The court calendar for the new term is being arranged and many cases are crowded into the first few weeks. The first week is scheduled mostly with state cases hanging over
from this term of court, and an effort will be made to clean up the slate in criminal business, before
the prosecutor-elect takes office
January 1.

One of the cases set for trial,
which probably attracts more interest than all others, is the case against Mary Ellen Hughes of this

RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY LOCAL MINISTERS

Thursday Evenings Should Be Given
Over For Prayer Services, Not
Social Functions

REV. TACOMA NEW PRESIDENT

The Rushville Ministerial association held their annual meeting this morning, at which time a resolution was adopted calling attention to the fact that Thursday nights are set aside by the Protestant churches of the city for the weekly prayer meetings and a request is made that social functions and public meetings
be held on other nights in order that they will not conflict with the prayer
services.

The Rev. Reno Tacoma was elected succeeding the Rev. L. E. Brown, and E. G. McGibben was elected secretary-treasurer, succeeding the Rev. Mr.
Tacoma.

The annual Thanksgiving Day services were decided upon and will be held at the St. Paul's M. E. church
on Thanksgiving Day at ten o'clock,
and the Rev. Mr. McKibben will preach. The resolution adopted on the Thursday night services, is as follows.

Be it resolved by the Ministerial association of Rushville, Ind., that we respectfully and kindly call the attention of the public to the fact that for many years Thursday evening of the week has been the night
set apart by the churches for mid-week services, and we ask that as far as possible this fact be recognized and social functions and public meetings shall be held on other evenings of the week. Signed by L.
E. Brown, president and Reno Tacoma, secretary.

SUCCESSOR TO BE NAMED THURSDAY

County Board of Education Will be Called to Meet Thursday Morning to Elect Superintendent

SEVERAL NAMES MENTIONED

Birney D. Farthing of This City and
L. A. Lockwood of Arlington Are Active Candidates

A special meeting of the county board of education, which is composed of the township trustees of the county, will be called by Phil Wilk,
county auditor, for Thursday morning at ten o'clock to elect a successor to W. E. Wagoner who has announced that he will resign to accept a position as assistant state school inspector.

The board of education will meet earlier in the day Thursday to formally accept the resignation of Mr.
Wagoner, and will then proceed to the election of a new county superintendent at ten o'clock, as provided by law.

Mr. Wagoner will officially take up his new work on Tuesday, but he will probably not begin active work
until Wednesday because the office of the state superintendent of public instruction will probably be closed
tomorrow on account of the election.

It was stated with authority today that Mr. Wagoner would not have accepted the state position if the county board of commissioners had acted favorably upon the resolution of the educational board of recommendation to the county council
that the county superintendent's salary be raised from $2,000 to 2,400 a year. The question of an increase in salary was brought up before the council at the annual meeting last September when appropriations for 1923 were made.

The retiring county school head is regarded as a very competent official and many people throughout Rush county who are identified with the schools regret to see him leave his work here.

Birney D. Farthing of this city
principal of the Bentonville schools,
and L. A. Lockwood, principal of the Posey township schools, are known to be active candidates for the office
of county superintendent, and other names have been mentioned in this connection, including E. B. Butler, principal of the Rushville high school
and Floyd Minor, formerly of Carthage,
who is now superintendent of the Pendleton, Ind., schools.

Neither Mr. Butler nor Mr. Minor have announced that they are candidates for the place. Mr. Minor was formerly principal at Manilla.

CHANGES MADE IN THE RURAL MAIL CARRIERS

Alfred Gilbert Placed on Route One and Two Shifts are Made—Lon
Kennedy New Clerk

IN HARVEY ALLEN'S PLACE

Several changes were effective today in among the rural route carriers in the postoffice, due to the recent resignation of Lon Kennedy as carrier on route 8, who resigned to take a clerical position in the postoffice. The clerical position was made vacant when Harvey Allen was promoted to become a postoffice inspector.

Mr. Kennedy, who had taken the examination for mail clerk in the local postoffice, was next in line for Mr. Allen's position, and he has been filling that place for several months.
Alfred Gilbert was appointed rural route carrier, when Mr. Kennedy resigned, and the changes made were officially confirmed today.

Joel M. Harrold, a veteran carrier
on route four, was granted a change
and he was shifted over to route eight, and John Mills, carrier on route one, was also granted a change, and was shifted to route
four. Mr. Gilbert the new carrier, was placed on route one.

Blackheaded Pimples Quit With S. S. S.

Why? Pimple-Poison Goes When Red-Blood-Cells Increase! S. S. S. Builds These Red-Blood-Cells.

You can be sure of this, nature has no substitute for red-blood-cells. Pimple-poison can't live in the red rivers of your blood as long as there are enough rich red-blood-cells in it. More red-blood-cells!

The shame of a blemished face!

That is what you need when you see pimples staring at you in the mirror. Black-headed pimples are worse! Eczema is worse yet! You can try everything under the sun—you'll find only one answer, more cell-power in your blood! The tremendous results, produced by an increase in red-blood-cells is one of the A. B. C's of medical science. Red-cells mean clear-pure rich blood. They mean clear, ruddy, lovable complexions. They mean nerve power, because all your nerves are fed by your blood. They mean freedom forever from pimples, from the blackhead pest, from boils, from eczema and skin eruptions, from rheumatism impurities, from that tired, exhausted, run-down feeling. Red-blood-cells are the most important thing in the world to each of us. S. S. S. will build them for you. S. S. S. has been known since 1826, as one of the greatest blood-builders, blood-cleansers and system strengtheners ever produced. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

DUROCS BRING A BIG SUM

Receipts at Charles M. Trowbridge
Sale Amount to $4,997.50

Sixty-three head of Duroc hogs brought the sum of $4,997.50 at the sale of Charles M. Trowbridge in northern Rush county November 1. Buyers from four states—Indiana, Ohio, Illinois and Nebraska—got some of the offering, which were from one of the best herds of Durocs to be found any place.

The top sow of the sale, which won first prize in the senior yearling class at the Indiana state fair in Indianapolis, was sold for $475. The top spring boar sold for $275. Mr. Trowbridge said today that he wished to thank everyone who attended the sale for the kindly interest they showed and for their attendance.

frontery to say anything against Jim Watson.

"We are for you for anything you want, and we have always stood by you through thick and thin," said Judge Sparks, turning to Senator Watson. This is no time to be mealy-mouthed about this thing. There is nothing in this world that means so much as to have your friends stand by you. The crowd is a compliment to you.

"He has always been a man among men and has always stood for the best things in his community. When there was a fight, he was always on the right side in the trenches fighting. Without betraying any confidences, Jim, I am going to tell you that we want you to be president."

Senator Watson was very visibly affected, as he always is when he comes back home and hears the plaudits of his friends.

"I will try to conquer my emotions long enough," the senator said, "to say a few things for my good friend, Will Sparks. He has always been my trusted friend and I can pay him no higher compliment than to say that he has never betrayed any trust reposed in him by his friends."

"For 36 years I have been a public speaker," the senator continued, "and it has been my privilege to speak in every northern state in the union before thousands and thousands of people. Yet none has been as great and has ever called forth the emotions in my heart or the sentiments in my breast as the old home audience."

"I have had my ups and downs in politics and most of my ups have been due to you people right here. I have never done anything in my public life that I would not have any of you know. You need never have any fear of my betraying any trust you have reposed in me."

"I don't know what kind of a speech to make," he added.

"Do whatever you want to," said I. N. Clifford, who was on the stage.

"Well, I want to make a political speech," he answered, and he did.

CHAPTER MEETING

Rush Chapter No. 24 R. A. M. will hold their regular meeting Monday evening beginning at 7:30.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our dear Mother, Eliza A. Newhouse, who departed this life just one year ago today, Nov. 6.
Silently the shades of evening gather around our lonely door.
Silently they bring before us Mother's face which we can see no more.
Softly the stars are gleaming upon a precious grave.
Where sleepeth without dreaming Mother, the one we all loved, but could not save.
When the evening shades are falling, And we're sitting all alone,
In our hearts there comes a longing,
If Mother could only come home,
Oft and oft our thoughts do wander To her grave not far away.
Where we laid our darling mother, Just one year ago today.

The CHILDREN

Full Maturity.

A woman is not a woman until she has been baptized in her love and devotion to home and children.—Mrs. F. Croly.

The Question

Has been brought out about voting for members of the Advisory Board in some of the townships. The voter may vote for any of the candidates on any of the tickets, just so they do not vote for more than three. As the Advisory Board candidates do not have any special place on the ticket they are put on by the Board of Election Commissioners, so you need not pay any attention to where they are on their tickets. You can vote for any three of them.

After the Showdown

The great "buyers' strike" of 1920-21 a never-to-be forgotten event in the history of this country proved a point which must henceforth be recognized as basic and incontrovertible.

It was discovered by merchants and jobbers everywhere, in practically every line of merchandise, that it was the trademarked and adequately advertised brands of goods that got the lion's share of the business there was to get, while the preponderant loss of sales fell on the unbranded and unadvertised goods.

This was a great "showdown" for Advertising. Its position as a factor in economic life was on trial. Had it really done what had always been claimed for it? Had it created consumer preference that would hold against the keen competition of a sacrifice price on unmarked goods?

The verdict of the buying public was unqualified. It was not a straw vote to determine popularity. It was the final test of willingness to buy. The ballots were dollars. And the preponderant majority voted with their dollars that they preferred to keep right on buying advertised goods.

With the whole country on a reduced schedule of production and sales, the factories that were able to keep on producing, in anything like normal quantities, were invariably those making trademarked and nationally advertised goods.

All over the country today manufacturers, jobbers, and merchants are giving serious consideration to this important and conspicuously demonstrated fact: the public prefer to buy nationally advertised brands of merchandise. And public demand is the last word in all economic situations. No one can go against it and long endure.

This will mean, then, that more and more manufacturers will seek out ways to make their products worthy of a distinctive trademark and a sustained plan of advertising. It will mean that merchants will more and more give preference in their stocks to advertised brands. It will mean that the jobbers will more and more arrange to supply the merchant with advertised brands.

But new advertisers, manufacturers who are finally convinced that their future lies in the direction of an advertised product, will discover that the magic power of advertising cannot be applied overnight. It may require sustained effort to attain a position of equality with competitors who have been advertising for many years. This will be an unwelcome discovery. But it will be found to be the truth, and will be their only hope of gaining a substantial foothold in what, from now on, must continue to be a more keenly competitive market than we have known for a generation.

SPECIAL DAY YIELDS $204.44 FOR VETERANS

Fund Raised By War Mothers Saturday By Sale of Forget-Me-Nots And With Exchange

THANKFUL FOR ASSISTANCE.

The campaign of the Rush county War Mothers Saturday—"Forget-Me-Not Day"—yielded $204.44, it was announced today by the treasurer, Mrs. Susan Cooning, for the benefit of the disabled veterans of the late war.

"Forget-Me-Not Day" was celebrated in most of the towns and cities of the United States Saturday to raise funds for veterans who are in hospitals or are not in position to take the position which they left when they went to war. The sale of forget-me-nots was augmented by the proceeds from a food exchange that also was held Saturday by the War Mothers and was liberally patronized.

Mrs. Armanda Birt of Arlington, county War Mother, and all members of the county organization, joined today in thanking Miss Hunsinger and Rushville high school girls who helped in the drive; Arlington girls; Beech Grove Lodge of Odd Fellows at Arlington for their donation; the Rev. Mr. Kern and Ulrey for talks before the Arlington school and Odd Fellows lodge; Dr. Frank H. Green for his talk before the Rushville high school and all merchants and citizens of Rush county for their help in making the day a success.

Mrs. Rose Moore was chairman of the exchange committee and Mrs.

Cooning was treasure. The committee in charge of the "Forget-Me-Not Day", drive was composed of Mrs. Carrie Neal, chairman, Mrs. Wade Sherman and Mrs. Orville Bartlett.

All voters have practically decided how they will cast their ballots Tuesday. There may be some, however, who are still weighing the evidence. For those who are, it is well to forget all about all of the assertions made during the heat of the campaign and resort to their own memory.

They need only remember what has transpired during the past eighteen months—how the country has recovered from the postwar depression more rapidly than the most optimistic ever anticipated.

The work of the national administration and the resolute action of business everywhere, reassured of an attempt on the part of the powers at Washington to get back to normal, filled the dinner pails of the nation in so short a time as sixteen months, and today employers are searching for labor.

There was no chance for business to get over its sick spell until efficiency was brought into the business of government and the government's policies were formulated to meet the necessities of the country.

A. M. Younger, retired farmer, 828 W. 10th St., Rushville, says: "When a man gets as old as I, he is bound to have trouble with the kidneys. At times my back got weak and lame and there was a dull aching through the small of it. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage, causing me to get up at night. I used Dean's Kidney Pills procured at Johnson & Co.'s Drug store and they have never failed to relieve me."

The above statement was given August 26, 1915 and on November 5, 1920, Mr. Younger added: "I still think Dean's Kidney Pills are the best medicine made for kidney trouble."

AMUSEMENTS

"Perjury" at the Mystic

"Perjury", a William Fox special production presenting William Farnum in a role which is said to make supreme demands upon his dramatic genius, will be seen at the Mystic today and Tuesday. The production enjoyed a special run in a Broadway, New York, theatre, where it created a sensation. Metropolitan reviewers declared in one of the most intense human interest dramas ever seen on the screen.

Harry Millarde directed the big special, and the cast includes Sally Crute, Wallace Erskine, John Webb Dillion, Frank Shannon, Frank Joyner, Grace La Vell, Gilbert Rooney and Alice Mann.

The story of "Perjury" requires the famous screen star to display varying emotions of tremendous intensity. The hero, Robert Moore, appears first as a strong and successful man of 45 years, manager of a large factory, and a happy husband and father, genial and cheerful. From this he is transformed by suspicion and jealousy into a person in unceasing torment. Red rage despair, followed by submissiveness as prison doors close upon him for twenty years.

Through the long term in a prison Robert develops a kindness and saintliness of character which endear him to the warden and guards. There is pathos in the situation, but the tragic element has passed. The scene in which the prematurely aged convict leaves the prison, and those immediately following, are said to be the most touching portrayals ever given by William Farnum.

A neat appearing suit doesn't necessarily mean that it is new. Many a man who has come to us for a clean and press has been asked this very question, however.

More than that—one of our regular jobs is mending tears and places where the fabric has pulled apart, in such a manner that they cannot be seen. One man after another has received months of wear out of a suit of clothes he thought ready for the "old clothes man."

Ferndale Player Grabs Ball Following Punt to Arlington and Races to One-Yard Line

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 6.—The Ferndales defeated Arlington yesterday afternoon, 25 to 0, before a large crowd at Ferndale field. The outstanding star of the contest was Nameloe, full back for Ferndale, who counted two on the West siders' touchdowns and otherwise played a strong game. At the start of the third quarter Nameloe followed the ball down the field on the Ferndale kickoff, grabbed a muff by an Arlington player and ran to the Arlington one-yard line. Nelson, back in the game for the Ferndales after a serious injury in the Sheridan game, scored a touchdown for the home team, and a forward pass, Sapp to Joe Hopkins, for another touchdown. Sapp, Lampert and Wohlheiter played good football for the Ferndales. In the Arlington lineup, the Northam brothers and Quarter Back Wilson showed up well.

Gunn Haydon

By HENRY L. FARRELL (United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Nov. 6.—Harry Heilman, American League batting champion of 1921, home run hitter, first class and one of the best outfielders in the league, fears that his baseball career has ended, according to word received from California.

Late in the past season, Heilman fell in a game between the Detroit Tigers and the Washington Senators and broke his collar bone. He went back to Detroit where he had to have the bone rebroken and reset. At this time it was found that his shoulder also was broken.

In a letter to his brother, Dick Heilman, in San Francisco, the Tiger star declared his shoulder was in such bad shape that he not only despaired of being able to swing a bat next year, but that he feared he would never be able to play again.

As they finished the season, the Tigers looked like a real good prospect for the 1923 pennant race and the loss of Heilman, one of the main works of the team, would be a severe blow to Ty Cobb's chances of grabbing the pennant.

Cobb is rebuilding the team and the results he achieved in the last race was one of the big surprises of the season.

If the deal should go through with the Boston Red Sox by which the Tigers would get Derrill Pratt and "Rip" Collins, they ought to be one of the favorites for the championship next year.

After they finally got going past the half-post in the race, the Pittsburgh Pirates looked like the best team in the National League.

Pittsburgh fans felt if Bill McKeechne had been placed in charge of the team at the start of the season, that the Pirates would have won the pennant.

McKeechne is going right out after the championship next spring and he plans to make several changes in the team. He wants a couple of pitchers, and a new infielder and another right handed outfielder.

Horace Ford, the Boston Brave star, may be in a Pittsburgh uniform if a deal can be made this winter, it is understood.

McKeechne is said to be willing to part with Barnhart, Hamilton, Yellow Horse, Brown, Rohwer, Collins and Lovelace in trades.

Cooper and Morrison are said to be the only pitchers that are sure of their jobs for next year.

Considering the fact that the Pirates did not begin to work properly until Walter Schmidt deserted the holdup ranks, it is rather unusual to hear talk from Pittsburgh that Barney Dreyfuss wants to get rid of him. Schmidt is one of the finest catchers in the league, but he and his boss cannot agree on what salary he is worth.

Just before the close of the season, Schmidt wrote to a friend in California that he was going to manage the team in 1923 and it gave rise to reports that he wasn't friendly with McKeechne. Previous happenings do not support the story, however, as one of McKeechne's first acts as manager of the team was to insist upon meeting Schmidt's terms and get him back in the game.

city, who is charged with embezzlement. Her case is set for Dec. 4.

On October 27, the court heard the case of Ruby D. Powell against William E. Watson, et al, a complaint to set aside a deed, which involved the settlement of the estate of John J. Veatch, wealthy farmer who died in Walker township.

The court has passed a decision on the matter in which he found for the cross complainants, William A. Hardy and Cyrus Hilligoss, and against the plaintiff. The court has ordered the land sold, and D. E. Barnett was appointed trustee, with his bond placed at $50,000.

The affair attracted considerable attention in court recently. The plaintiff in the suit was a niece of the deceased, who was not mentioned in the will, and a suit to contest the will was filed and an agreement reached before the case was tried.

By the agreement, it will be recalled that she was allowed about $5,000, and the suit was dismissed. William E. Watson, a foster child, was given the bulk of the estate, according to the terms of the will.

Next Sunday the Arlington team will play the Riverside A. A.'s of Indianapolis at Arlington. This team defeated the Ferndales 10 to 0, and Arlington is expecting a hard game at this time.

It can only be used by persons who are physically unable to go to the polls, or who, by reason of the nature of their business, or other unavoidable cause, will be absent from the county of their residence on election day. It was never intended to be used as a matter of convenience, and can be legally used only in the manner above indicated.

"I am informed that in some localities hundreds of those absent voters ballots have been voted by persons who are perfectly able to go to the polls on election day, and some cases have been reported where the persons so voting having indicated that they desired to go in person to the polls, but were advised not to do so by the politicians who sought their vote. This kind of business will not do and it only serves to illustrate that the persons who are engaging in it have forgotten the recent history of such transactions in Indiana.

"All good citizens should endeavor to see to it that the election is kept clean, and if it is not kept clean, it will be my duty to lay the evidences of fraud before the Federal grand jury which convenes next Wednesday, and to ask it to indict those who violate the law and this I shall certainly do.

"It is needless to say that any investigation made will be absolutely non-partisan."

High Commissioners Inform Refet Pasha, New Governor of Constantinople, They Will Stay

DEFY ANGORA GOVERNMENT

Reported That Turkish Forces Everywhere are Invading So-Called Neutral Zone

(By United Press)

Constantinople, Nov. 6.—The allied high commissioners at Constantinople today informed Refet Pasha, the new governor, that they would not evacuate the city in compliance with his demands.

The nationalist governor took over control of Constantinople Sunday, the former officials retiring without resistance, and immediately Refet Pasha sent a note to the allied commissioners suggesting they order their troops out of the city.

Instead, two companies of grenadier guards were sent at the sultan's request to guard his palace, while the allied representatives met and decided to defy the Angora governor's decree. This morning formal notices was given him that the allies would not evacuate. Disorders are feared as the city's population is celebrating riotously the arrival of the Kemalist administration.

At the same time it is reported that Turkish forces are everywhere invading the so-called neutral zones indirect violation of the armistice agreement signed at Mudania.

The allies have protested against this but may find themselves faced with an accomplished fact and be forced to consent.

Refet Pasha, backed by Hamid Bey, representative of Mustapha Kemal, took over quietly the offices of city administration.

The employees of the Constantinople government are considered as "vacanting" except for the director general of police, the military governor and the court officials.

Gains 15 Pounds And Feels Like A New Man

"I feel like a man made over since taking Tanlae, and at work I can hold my own with men twenty years younger than me," declared William Kruger, 692 S. Hohman St., Hammond, Ind., well known construction worker.

"Almost a year ago I suffered a bad attack of pleurisy, and it seemed that everything went wrong with me. My stomach was all out of order and nothing ever agreed with me. Gas formed on my stomach and I suffered the most terrible pains, gas bloating and heartburn. I often have to do some high climbing on my job, and I would get so dizzy sometimes I was afraid I would drop from where I was at work.

"Tanlae took hold of my troubles right away. I have gained fifteen pounds and I am so strong and healthy my friends often remark about it. I never lose a chance to tell about Tanlae."

Tanlae is sold by all good druggists. —Advertisement

VELVET, CRYSTAL AND SILVER FOR FORMAL EVENING GOWN

By HEDDA HOYT
(Written for United Press)

New York, Nov. 6—It is a fallacy this fall to attempt to describe any certain type of silhouette or material for the formal evening gown. It simply cannot be done. Materials have never been so varied nor have they been used in such elaborate combinations. The silhouette has but one universal idea—length.

One may be straight-lined, semi-draped, as tightly swathed as a mummy, or as bouffant as an early Victorian, and still be in style if one has length of hemline.

Chiffon velvet has the preference for the formal gown and is favored in shades of rose, jade, sapphire blue and amber. When tightly draped about the figure, the velvet gown is usually unadorned, except for the crystal or rhine-stone buckle which holds the side drape in place.

In the straight-line models, which fall from the shoulder and only slightly emphasize the figure, these velvets are as a rule heavily beaded in crystal or steel beads or trimmed in ermine.

The bouffant types, with the distended hip line, often have flowers of metallic cloth applied in wreath design just above the wide scalloped hem. In nearly every instance the evening gown for this year is left entirely sleeveless, though the shoulder is cut a trifle wider than formerly.

As a trimming for the velvet gown ermine undoubtedly holds the lead. It is prettily used on a gown of bottle green as a narrow border for the circular hem, as a neck and arm finish and in the twisted girdle. Again it is seen on a long-bodied gown of black velvet outlining the side panels. Black is usually ornamented in some way this season; either in beading, in silver lace or with touches of fur.

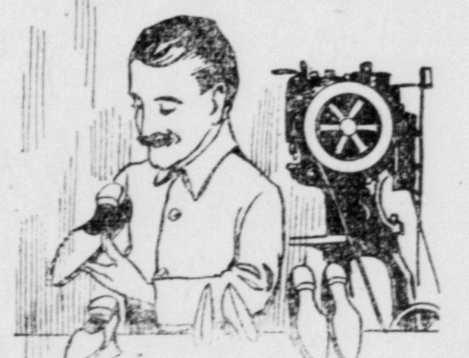

Jenny is responsible for a lovely flame colored gown which has long, silver-lined panels falling from the waist and a silver beaded belt. Many of the Jenny models show a sharply defined contrast between the bodice and skirt. A pretty frock utilizing this idea has its white velvet-beaded bodice and black velvet skirt joined at the low waist line with a rolled puff of black velvet. Broaded materials used as bodices and combined with plain skirts also follow the above plan and for the home dressmaker this is perhaps the easiest of the elaborate models which permits copying.

Entire gowns of brocaded metallic cloth are noticed among the imports. One attractive gown of this type is of gold and orange brocade trimmed about the hem with a border of black monkey fur.

For the dancing frock, chiffon is considered the smartest as well as the most serviceable material. It is especially nice on the young girl whose proportions do not permit the wearing of the more sumptuous velvets. A gown, designed expressly for the mademoiselle, has a long, slender bodice of blue, taffeta with a skirt of many tiers of chiffon of the same shade of blue, gathered into ruffles. Lavender velvet roses finish the low waist line and the off-the-shoulder neckline. The young miss of this season prefers quaint, piquant types of frocks with the slightly wired hips to the form-fitting silhouettes. Where one has square, ungainly shoulders, the berth effects may be used in preference to the wide shoulder line.

SPEND HONEYMOON WITHIN CASTLE WALLS

Ex-Kaiser Wilhelm Hohenzollern And His Bride, Former Princess Her-
mine Wedded Sunday

NARROW SPACE TO ROOM IN

By FERNINAND JAHN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
(Copyright 1922, by U. P.)
Doorn Holland, Nov. 6.—Ex-Kaiser William Hohenzollern and his bride, former Princess Hermine, were united in marriage by civil and religious ceremonies at Doorn house yesterday noon and today were on their honeymoon—within the castle
walls.

The pomp and splendor with which Wilhelm surrounded himself upon the occasion of his second wedding could not suffice to stretch a whit the narrow confines within which he and the new mistress of the house of Hol-enzollern must spend the first few days of their married life.

Walls, surmounted by barbed wire
entanglements, kept in the honey-moons just as certainly as they kept out the journalists and cameramen during the ceremony yesterday.
A space about a mile and a half in circumference is all in which Wilhelm
and Hermine have to roam.

WEEKLY STORE NEWS

From ALLEN'S

Earlier in the year it seemed that everything in the food line would be cheaper, but at this time practically everything is advancing.
On some few articles the advance is justified on account of short crops, etc., but on the majority of items the speculators seem to be having their own way. The car shortage and slowness of shipping is being used as an excuse for much of the advance and no doubt it is having some effect, but back of this are tremendous crops of beans, sugar, rice and many other commodities that must be moved some time soon and we feel that even the speculators will not be able to beat the law of supply and demand for a very long time.

On account of the war and the burning of Smyrna there will be practically no imported figs this year. However that should not worry us for California is growing figs and curing them almost as good as the Turk—and a whole lot cleaner.

Have you noticed the mammoth cheese in our window? We always contract for 500 pounds of cheese. Last year cheese declined a few cents per pound and every one received weighed almost 600 pounds. This year cheese has advanced several cents and the one just received weighed less than 400 pounds. Quite a coincidence isn't it?

We never realized until last week that our ads are read so generally. We suggested a meal of sauer kraut and weinerwursts and about everybody in town acted accordingly. Some came back for the second order. We expect them all back this week.

MANY STATES TO PICK GOVERNORS

Elections On Tuesday Throughout
The Country Involves 35 Gubernatorial Contests

THREE STAND OUT IN LIST

Governor's Races In New York, Pennsylvania And Massachusetts Hold Center Of Interest

By LAWRENCE MARTIN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Nov. 6 (United Press).

Among the thirty-five gubernatorial contests to be decided at tomorrow's election, three stand out—New York, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts.

In New York Governor Nathan Miller, Republican is opposed by former Governor Al Smith, Democrat. The campaign they put on was one of the personalities, a man-to-man fight, with partisans of both stirred deeply. Smith got his nomination only over the opposition of William R. Hearst and Mayor Hylan of New York, and his chances today appeared to depend to a degree upon Democratic unity.

Governor Miller's record in office was the issue. Smith assailed this record in his characteristically vigorous and aggressive fashion and aroused great enthusiasm, as he always does. Miller, standing on his record, also made a strong impression, with the result that the state was stirred up to an unusual degree.

Gifford Pinchot startled the regular wing of the Republican party in Pennsylvania and the nation when he won the Republican gubernatorial nomination there over the organization's candidate. To-morrow Pinchot and his friends expect the primary victor to be clinched by Pinchot's election over John A. McSparran Democrat.

McSparran has put up a plucky fight but in the nature of things started under the tremendous handicap of Pennsylvania's normal Republicanism, which is overwhelming. The Democrats, however, argued that if Pinchot could win the primary against the organization, McSparran might conceivably have a chance in a free-for-all.

Pinchot, well known nationally as a Progressive, has campaigned on a program of Progressive reform of the state government, including its finances.

In Massachusetts Governor Channing Cox, Republican, is seeking reelection. His Democratic opponent is John F. "Honey" Fitzgerald, a popular figure. Fitzgerald has an appealing way with him and may poll a surprising vote tomorrow, although Cox's friends assert he is sure of reelection.

President Harding's home state, Ohio, also will elect a Governor. Carini Thompson of Cleveland former member of Congress, is the Republican candidate and A. Vic Donahey, former state auditor, is the Democratic. Donahey is strong among the people, but lacks cohesive support from the Democratic organization.

Blackheaded Pimples Quit With S.S.S.

You can be sure of this. Nature has no substitute for red-blood-cells. Pimple-poison can't live in the red rivers of your blood as long as there are enough rich red-blood-cells in it. More red-blood-cells!

The shame of a blemished face!

That is what you need when you see pimples staring at you in the mirror. Black-headed pimples are worse! Eczema is worse yet! You can try everything under the sun—you'll find only one answer, more cell-power in your blood! The tremendous results, produced by an increase in red-blood-cells is one of the A. B. C's of medical science. Red-cells mean clear-pure rich blood. They mean clear, ruddy, lovable complexions. They mean nerve power, because all your nerves are fed by your blood. They mean freedom forever from pimples, from the blackhead crust, from boils, from eczema and skin eruptions, from rheumatism impurities, from that tired, exhausted, run-down feeling. Red-blood-cells are the most important thing in the world to each of us. S. S. S. will build them for you. S. S. S. has been known since 1826, as one of the greatest blood-builders, blood-cleansers and system strengtheners ever produced. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

Sale Amount to $4,997.50

Sixty-three head of Duroc hogs brought the sum of $4,997.50 at the sale of Charles M. Trowbridge in northern Rush county November 1. Buyers from four states—Indiana, Ohio, Illinois and Nebraska—got some of the offering, which were from one of the best herds of Durocs to be found any place.

The top sow of the sale, which won first prize in the senior yearling class at the Indiana state fair in Indianapolis, was sold for $475. The top spring boar sold for $275. Mr. Trowbridge said today that he wished to thank everyone who attended the sale for the kindly interest they showed and for their attendance.

frontory to say anything against Jim Watson.

"We are for you for anything you want, and we have always stood by you through thick and thin," said Judge Sparks, turning to Senator Watson. This is no time to be meanly-mouthed about this thing. There is nothing in this world that means so much as to have your friends stand by you. The crowd is a compliment to you.

"He has always been a man among men and has always stood for the best things in his community. When there was a fight, he was always on the right side in the trenches fighting. Without betraying any confidences, Jim, I am going to tell you that we want you to be president."

Senator Watson was very visibly affected, as he always is when he comes back home and hears the plaudits of his friends.

"I will try to conquer my emotions long enough," the senator said, "to say a few things for my good friend, Will Sparks. He has always been my trusted friend and I can pay him no higher compliment than to say that he has never betrayed any trust reposed in him by his friends."

"For 36 years I have been a public speaker," the senator continued, "and it has been my privilege to speak in every northern state in the union before thousands and thousands of people. Yet none has been as great and has ever called forth the emotions in my heart or the sentiments in my breast as the old home audience."

"I have had my ups and downs in politics and most of my ups have been due to you people right here. I have never done anything in my public life that I would not have any of you know. You need never have any fear of my betraying any trust you have reposed in me."

"I don't know what kind of a speech to make," he added.

"Do whatever you want to," said I. N. Clifford, who was on the stage.

"Well, I want to make a political speech," he answered, and he did.

Reflection of the sun's rays through colored glass in a window in the basement of the home of Dr. Fred Catt, corner of Jackson and Eighth streets, at one o'clock today caused the fire department to be called to the place, but no fire was found. IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our dear Mother, Eliza A. Newhouse, who departed this life just one year ago today, Nov. 6.

Silently the shades of evening gather around our lonely door.

Silently they bring before us Mother's face which we can see no more.

Softly the stars are gleaming upon a precious grave.

Where sleepeth without dreaming Mother, the one we all loved, but could not save.

When the evening shades are falling, And we're sitting all alone,

In our hearts there comes a longing,

If Mother could only come home, Off and off our thoughts do wander

To her grave not far away.

Where we laid our darling mother, Just one year ago today.

The Question

Has been brought out about voting for members of the Advisory Board in some of the townships. The voter may vote for any of the candidates on any of the tickets, just so they do not vote for more than three. As the Advisory Board candidates do not have any special place on the ticket they are put on by the Board of Election Commissioners, so you need not pay any attention to where they are on their tickets. You can vote for any three of them.

This opinion was given by—

After the Showdown

The great "buyers' strike" of 1920-21 a never-to-be forgotten event in the history of this country proved a point which must henceforth be recognized as basic and incontrovertible.

It was discovered by merchants and jobbers everywhere, in practically every line of merchandise, that it was the trademarked and adequately advertised brands of goods that got the lion's share of the business there was to get, while the preponderant loss of sales fell on the unbranded and unadvertised goods.

This was a great "showdown" for Advertising. Its position as a factor in economic life was on trial. Had it really done what had always been claimed for it? Had it created consumer preference that would hold against the keen competition of a sacrifice price on unmarked goods?

The verdict of the buying public was unqualified. It was not a straw vote to determine popularity. It was the final test of willingness to buy. The ballots were dollars. And the preponderant majority voted with their dollars that they preferred to keep right on buying advertised goods.

With the whole country on a reduced schedule of production and sales, the factories that were able to keep on producing in anything like normal quantities, were invariably those making trademarked and nationally advertised goods.

All over the country today manufacturers, jobbers, and merchants are giving serious consideration to this important and conspicuously demonstrated fact: the public prefer to buy nationally advertised brands of merchandise. And public demand is the last word in all economic situations. No one can go against it and long endure.

This will mean, then, that more and more manufacturers will seek out ways to make their products worthy of a distinctive trademark and a sustained plan of advertising. It will mean that merchants will more and more give preference in their stocks to advertised brands. It will mean that the jobbers will more and more arrange to supply the merchant with advertised brands.

But new advertisers, manufacturers who are finally convinced that their future lies in the direction of an advertised product, will discover that the magic power of advertising cannot be applied overnight. It may require sustained effort to attain a position of equality with competitors who have been advertising for many years. This will be an unwelcome discovery. But it will be found to be the truth, and will be their only hope of gaining a substantial foothold in what, from now on, must continue to be a more keenly competitive market than we have known for a generation.

THANKFUL FOR ASSISTANCE.

The campaign of the Rush county War Mothers Saturday—"Forget-Me-Not Day"—yielded $204.44, it was announced today by the treasurer, Mrs. Susan Cooning, for the benefit of the disabled veterans of the late war.

"Forget-Me-Not Day" was celebrated in most of the towns and cities of the United States Saturday, to raise funds for veterans who are in hospitals or are not in position to take the position which they left when they went to war. The sale of forget-me-nots was augmented by the proceeds from a food exchange that also was held Saturday by the War Mothers and was liberally patronized.

Mrs. Armanda Birt of Arlington, county War Mother, and all members of the county organization, joined today in thanking Miss Hunsinger and Rushville high school girls who helped in the drive; Arlington girls; Beech Grove Lodge of Odd Fellows at Arlington for their donation; the Rev Mr. Kern and Ulrey for talks before the Arlington school and Odd Fellows lodge; Dr. Frank H. Green for his talk before the Rushville high school and all merchants and citizens of Rush county for their help in making the day a success.

Mrs. Rose Moore was chairman of the exchange committee and Mrs.

Cooning was treasurer. The committee in charge of the "Forget-Me-Not Day", drive was composed of Mrs. Carrie Neal, chairman, Mrs. Wade Sherman and Mrs. Orville Bartlett.

AMUSEMENTS

"Perjury" at the Mystic

"Perjury", a William Fox special production presenting William Farnum in a role which is said to make supreme demands upon his dramatic genius, will be seen at the Mystic today and Tuesday. The production enjoyed a special run in a Broadway, New York, theatre, where it created a sensation. Metropolitan reviewers declared in one of the most intense human interest dramas ever seen on the screen.

Harry Millarde directed the big special, and the cast includes Sally Cruise, Wallace Erskine, John Webb Dillon, Frank Shannon, Frank Joyner, Grace La Vell, Gilbert Rooney and Alice Mann.

The story of "Perjury" requires the famous screen star to display varying emotions of tremendous intensity. The hero, Robert Moore, appears first as a strong and successful man of 45 years, manager of a large factory, and a happy husband and father, genial and cheerful. From this he is transformed by suspicion and jealousy into a person in unceasing torment. Red rage despair, followed by submission, as prison doors close upon him for twenty years.

Through the long term in a prison Robert develops a kindness and saintliness of character which endear him to the warden and guards. There is pathos in the situation, but the tragic element has passed. The scene in which the prematurely aged convict leaves the prison, and those immediately following, are said to be the most touching portrayals ever given by William Farnum.

Scripps-Howard Newspaper To Succeed Scripps-McRae

New York, Nov. 6.—A new firm name, the Scripps-Howard newspaper, was announced today as successor to the Scripps-McRae newspapers, publishing afternoon dailies in 25 American cities.

The new firm is composed of Robert P. Scripps, succeeding his father, E. W. Scripps, and Roy W. Howard, succeeding Col. Milton A. McRae.

Robert P. Scripps has been the active editorial head of the Scripps-McRae organization for several years. Howard entered the organization as a copywriter of the Cincinnati Post about 15 years ago. He was president of the United Press Associations at the age of 30 and resigned that post two years ago to become business director of the Scripps-McRae newspapers. At 39 he becomes a member of the firm.

Let Us Fix Up That Suit

A neat appearing suit doesn't necessarily mean that it is new. Many a man who has come to us for a clean and press, has been asked this very question, however.

More than that—one of our regular jobs is mending tears and places where the fabric has pulled apart, in such a manner that they cannot be seen. One man after another has received months of wear out of a suit, of clothes he thought ready for the "old clothes man."

No matter how the condition, bring in that suit. Let us fix it, or press it, or both. We'll frankly tell you if it's beyond hope.

Nearly 20,000 employees of the government in its civilian and military departments, were dismissed and turned from a burden on the community to a support to the community through their productive work.

Peace has been made. The limitation of naval armament has been brought about, not only to enable reduction in government expenditure, but above all, to give that security in peace which is vital for the re-emergence of industry and commerce.

Aid has been given to our farmers, both directly and indirectly. The financial operations of the government have been put on such a basis as to give the least interference with the progress of commercial business. The government has co-operated with industry and commerce in the solution of a multitude of questions and crises that they were confronted with during this great period of depression.

A. M. Younger, retired farmer, 828 W. 10th St., Rushville, says: "When a man gets as old as I, he is bound to have trouble with the kidneys. At times my back got weak and lame and there was a dull aching through the small of it. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage, causing me to get up at night. I used Doan's Kidney Pills procured at Johnson & Co.'s Drug store and they have never failed to relieve me."

The above statement was given August 26, 1915 and on November 5, 1920, Mr. Younger added: "I still think Doan's Kidney Pills are the best medicine made for kidney trouble."

ONE TOUCHDOWN AFTER MUFF

Ferndale Player Grabs Ball Following Punt to Arlington and Races to One-Yard Line

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 6—The Ferndales defeated Arlington yesterday afternoon, 25 to 0, before a large crowd at Ferndale field. The outstanding star of the contest was Namelec, full back for Ferndale, who counted two on the West sides touchdowns and otherwise played a strong game. At the start of the third quarter Namelec followed the ball down the field on the Ferndale kickoff, grabbed a muff by an Arlington player and ran to the Arlington one-yard line. Nelson, back in the game for the Ferndales after a serious injury in the Sheridan game, scored a touchdown for the home team, and a forward pass, Sapp to Joe Hopkins, for another touchdown. Sapp, Lampert and Wohlheiter played good football for the Ferndales. In the Arlington lineup, the Northam brothers and Quarter Back Wilson showed up well.

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Nov. 6—Harry Heilmann, American League batting champion of 1921, home run hitter, first class and one of the best outfielders in the league, fears that his baseball career has ended, according to word received from California.

Late in the past season, Heilmann fell in a game between the Detroit Tigers and the Washington Senators and broke his collar bone. He went back to Detroit where he had to have the bone rebroken and reset. At this time it was found that his shoulder also was broken.

In a letter to his brother, Dick Heilmann, in San Francisco, the Tiger star declared his shoulder was in such bad shape that he not only despaired of being able to swing a bat next year, but that he feared he would never be able to play again.

As they finished the season, the Tigers looked like a real good prospect for the 1923 pennant race and the loss of Heilmann, one of the main works of the team, would be a severe blow to Ty Cobb's chances of grabbing the pennant.

Cobb is rebuilding the team and the results he achieved in the last race was one of the big surprises of the season.

If the deal should go through with the Boston Red Sox by which the Tigers would get Derrill Pratt and "Rip" Collins, they ought to be one of the favorites for the championship next year.

After they finally got going past the half-post in the race, the Pittsburgh Pirates looked like the best team in the National League.

Pittsburgh fans felt if Bill McKechnie had been placed in charge of the team at the start of the season, that the Pirates would have won the pennant.

McKechnie is going right out after the championship next spring and he plans to make several changes in the team. He wants a couple of pitchers, and a new infielder and another right handed outfielder.

Horace Ford, the Boston Braye star, may be in a Pittsburgh uniform if a deal can be made this winter, it is understood.

McKechnie is said to be willing to part with Barahart, Hamilton, Yellow Horse, Brown, Rohrer, Collins and Lovelace in trades.

Cooper and Morrison are said to be the only pitchers that are sure of their jobs for next year.

Considering the fact that the Pirates did not begin to work properly until Walter Schmidt deserted the holdup ranks, it is rather unusual to hear talk from Pittsburgh that Barney Dreyfuss wants to get rid of him. Schmidt is one of the finest catchers in the league, but he and his boss cannot agree on what salary he is worth.

Just before the close of the season, Schmidt wrote to a friend in California that he was going to manage the team in 1923 and it gave rise to reports that he wasn't friendly with McKechnie. Previous happenings do not support the story, however, as one of McKechnie's first acts as manager of the team was to insist upon meeting Schmidt's terms and get him back in the game.

city, who is charged with embezzlement. Her case is set for Dec. 4.

On October 27, the court heard the case of Ruby D. Powell against William E. Watson, et al, a complaint to set aside a deed, which involved the settlement of the estate of John J. Veatch, wealthy farmer who died in Walker township.

The court has passed a decision on the matter in which he found for the cross complainants, William A. Hardy and Cyrus Hillgoss, and against the plaintiff. The court has ordered the land sold, and D. E. Barnett was appointed trustee, with his bond placed at $50,000.

The affair attracted considerable attention in court recently. The plaintiff in the suit was a niece of the deceased, who was not mentioned in the will, and a suit to contest the will was filed and an agreement reached before the case was tried.

By the agreement, it will be recalled that she was allowed about $5,000, and the suit was dismissed. William E. Watson, a foster child, was given the bulk of the estate, according to the terms of the will.

absent voters ballots. The purpose of the absent voters ballot is plain. It can only be used by persons who are physically unable to go to the polls, or who, by reason of the nature of their business, or other unavoidable cause, will be absent from the county of their residence on election day. It was never intended to be used as a matter of convenience, and can be legally used only in the manner above indicated.

"I am informed that in some localities hundreds of those absent voters ballots have been voted by persons who are perfectly able to go to the polls on election day, and some cases have been reported where the persons so voting having indicated that they desired to go in person to the polls, but were advised not to do so by the politicians who sought their vote. This kind of business will not do and it only serves to illustrate that the persons who are engaging in it have forgotten the recent history of such transactions in Indiana.

"All good citizens should endeavor to see to it that the election is kept clean, and if it is not kept clean, it will be my duty to lay the evidences of fraud before the Federal grand jury which convenes next Wednesday, and to ask it to indict those who violate the law and this I shall certainly do.

"It is needless to say that any investigation made will be absolutely non-partisan."

High Commissioners Inform Refet Pasha, New Governor of Constantinople, They Will Stay

DEFY ANGORA GOVERNMENT

Reported That Turkish Forces Everywhere are Invading So-Called Neutral Zone

(By United Press)
Constantinople, Nov. 6.—The allied high commissioners at Constantinople today informed Refet Pasha, the new governor, that they would not evacuate the city in compliance with his demands.

The nationalist governor took over control of Constantinople Sunday, the former officials retiring without resistance, and immediately Refet Pasha sent a note to the allied commissioners suggesting they order their troops out of the city.

Instead, two companies of grenadier guards were sent at the sultan's request to guard his palace, while the allied representatives met and decided to defy the Angora government's decree. This morning formal notices were given him that the allies would not evacuate. Disorders are feared as the city's population is celebrating riotously the arrival of the Kemalist administration.

that Turkish forces are everywhere invading the so-called neutral zones indirect violation of the armistice agreement signed at Mudania.

The allies have protested against this but may find themselves faced with an accomplished fact and be forced to consent.

Refet Pasha, backed by Hamid Bey, representative of Mustapha Kemal, took over quietly the offices of city administration.

The employees of the Constantinople government are considered as "vacationing" except for the director general of police, the military governor and the court officials.

MANY STATES TO PICK GOVERNORS

Elections On Tuesday Throughout
The Country Involves 35 Gubernatorial Contests

THREE STAND OUT IN LIST

Governor's Races In New York, Pennsylvania And Massachusetts Hold Center Of Interest

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Nov. 6 (United Press). Among the thirty-five gubernatorial contests to be decided at tomorrow's election, three stand out—New York, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts.

In New York Governor Nathan Miller, Republican, is opposed by former Governor Al Smith, Democrat. The campaign they put on was one of the personalities, a man-to-man fight, with partisans of both stirred deeply. Smith got his nomination only over the opposition of William R. Hearst and Mayor Hylan of New York, and his chances today appeared to depend to a degree upon Democratic unity.

Governor Miller's record in office was the issue. Smith assailed this record in his characteristically vigorous and aggressive fashion and aroused great enthusiasm, as he always does. Miller, standing on his record, also made a strong impression, with the result that the state was stirred up to an unusual degree.

Gifford Pinchot startled the regular wing of the Republican party in Pennsylvania and the nation when he won the Republican gubernatorial nomination there over the organization's candidate. Tomorrow Pinchot and his friends expect the primary victor to be clinched by Pinchot's election over John A. McSparran Democrat.

McSparran has put up a plucky fight but in the nature of things started under the tremendous handicap of Pennsylvania's normal Republicanism, which is overwhelming. The Democrats, however, argued that if Pinchot could win in the primary against the organization, McSparran might conceivably have a chance in a free-for-all.

Pinchot, well known nationally as a Progressive, has campaigned on a program of Progressive reform of the state government, including its finances.

In Massachusetts Governor Channing Cox, Republican, is seeking reelection. His Democratic opponent is John F. "Honey" Fitzgerald, a popular figure. Fitzgerald has an appealing way with him and may poll a surprising vote tomorrow, although Cox's friends assert he is sure of reelection.

President Harding's home state, Ohio, also will elect a Governor. Carmi Thompson of Cleveland former member of Congress, is the Republican candidate and A. Vic Donahay, former state auditor, is the Democratic. Donahay is strong among the people, but lacks cohesive support from the Democratic organization.
